Network Commands Quick Reference

Linux networking commands and their short descriptions

Command	Description
`ifconfig`	Configure interfaces
`ip`	Network configuration
`ip a`	Display IP addresses
`ip route`	Display routing table
`traceroute google.com`	Trace network path
`tracepath google.com`	Discover network path
`ping google.com`	Test connectivity
`netstat -a`	Display connections
`netstat -r`	Display routing table
`ss`	Display socket statistics
`dig google.com`	DNS lookup
`nslookup google.com`	Resolve domain names
`route`	Display routing table
`host google.com`	Resolve domain names
`arp`	Display ARP table
`iwconfig`	Configure wireless interfaces
`hostname`	Display system hostname
`curl -O https://example.com/file.txt`	Download remote file
`wget https://example.com/file.txt`	Download remote file
`mtr google.com`	Monitor network route
`whois google.com`	Domain registration lookup
`ifplugstatus`	Check cable connection
`iftop`	Monitor network traffic
`sudo tcpdump -i any`	Capture network packets